

I oppose any weakening of Indiana law regarding "established business relationship". Since the Indiana law took affect my wife and I have been able to eat dinner each evening without aggravating phone calls that we do not want.